

FLORIDA CREDIT UNION

PLATINUM WAVE CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT

October 2017

In this Agreement, the singular includes the plural; "Agreement" means the terms, conditions and disclosures herein; "Card" means the VISA credit card and any duplicates, renewals or substitutions thereof; "you" and "your" means each person or entity whose name is embossed on the face of the Card, each person or entity who signs, uses or authorizes use of the Card, and each person who signed the Application for the Card; "Account" means your credit card line of credit account with Credit Union; and "Credit Union" means Florida Credit Union or anyone to whom Credit Union assigns or transfers this Agreement. By signing, using and/or authorizing the use of the Card, you agree to the following terms, conditions and disclosures:

1. Using Your Account. If you are approved for an Account, Credit Union will establish a line of credit for you and notify you of your credit limit. You agree that your credit limit is the maximum amount (purchases, cash advances, finance charges, plus "other charges") that you will have outstanding on your Account at any time. If you are over your credit limit, you must pay the amount you are over before payments will begin to restore your credit limit. You may request an increase in your credit limit only by a method acceptable to Credit Union. Credit Union has the right to reduce your credit limit, refuse to make an advance and/or terminate your Account at any time for any reason not prohibited by law.

2. Using Your Card. You may use your Card to make purchases from merchants and others who accept VISA Cards. However, you may not use your Card to initiate any type of electronic gambling transaction through the Internet. Your Card may not be used for any illegal transaction(s). If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card member security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. In addition, you may obtain cash advances from Credit Union and from other financial institutions that accept VISA Cards, and from some automated teller machines (ATMs). (Not all ATMs accept VISA Cards.) To obtain cash advances from an ATM, you must use the Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you for use with your Card. You will hold in strict confidence the Account number and any PIN to be used with the Card. You will notify Credit Union immediately of the loss or theft of the Card or PIN.

3. Responsibility. You agree to pay all charges (purchases, balance transfers and cash advances) to your Account made by you or anyone authorized by you to use your Account or Card, whether or not you notify Credit Union that they will be using your Account or Card. You also agree to pay all finance charges and other charges added to your Account under the terms of this Agreement or another agreement you made with Credit Union. Delivering the Card to another person constitutes authorization of that person to use the Card. If you want to cancel the authorized or permitted use of your Account or Card by another person, you must let Credit Union know in writing, and if that person has a Card, you must return that Card cut in half with your written notice. Each of you is jointly and individually responsible for paying all amounts owed under this Agreement. Credit Union can require any one of you individually to repay the entire amount owed under this Agreement. Each of you authorizes the other(s) to make purchases or cash advances individually.

4. Finance Charges.

A finance charge is the cost you pay for credit. We will charge Interest Charges and Fees to your account as described to you in your statements and other Truth in Lending Disclosures. The following describes how the finance charge will be calculated on the Account.

FINANCE CHARGES will be calculated on your Account purchases and balance transfers based on a variable Monthly Periodic Rate and a corresponding variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE that are determined by the Credit Union as follows: Credit Union starts with an independent index (the "Index"), which is The Wall Street Journal Prime Rate; when a range of rates has been published, the highest rate will be used. To determine the Monthly Periodic Rate that will apply to your Account, Credit Union adds a Margin of to the value of the Index. Your Margin is based on your creditworthiness; your specific Margin, ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE and corresponding Monthly Periodic Rate will be disclosed to you in other Truth-in-Lending disclosures. Credit Union then divides this sum by the number of months in a year (12). Credit Union then multiplies the Monthly Periodic Rate by the number of months in a year (12); the result is the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. The Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE can change each year based on changes in the Index; the Credit Union will select the date of each year to choose the new Index value in Credit Union's sole discretion. All changes in the Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will be based on application of the Margin and the Index. All changes to the Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will be effective on the first day of the first billing cycle following Credit Union's changes to the Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. There is no limit on the amount by which the Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE can change during any period or the term of your Account. The maximum ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE that can apply is 18.00% or the maximum permitted by law, whichever is less.

FINANCE CHARGES will be calculated on your Account cash advances based on the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE disclosed to you in other Truth-in-Lending disclosures and the corresponding Monthly Periodic Rate.

You have a 25-day grace (no finance charge) period on your purchase balance and for new purchases if you paid the entire New Balance on your last statement by the end of the grace period. You also have a 25-day grace period for new purchases if you did not have a balance on your last statement. The grace period starts on the billing cycle closing date. If you do not pay the entire New Balance by the end of the grace period, a finance charge will be imposed on the unpaid balance from the first day of the next billing cycle and on new purchases from the date they are posted to your Account. There is no grace period for cash advances. A finance charge will be imposed on cash advances from the date the cash advance is posted to your Account. Balance transfers as permitted by Credit Union from time to time in Credit Union's sole discretion will be treated as cash advances for the purpose of all finance charges and finance charge calculations.

Finance charges on your Account are calculated by applying the applicable Monthly Periodic Rate to the average daily balances for purchases and cash advances. Separate average daily balances are calculated for purchases and cash advances. To get each average daily balance, the daily balances for purchases and cash advances for the billing cycle are added and the totals are divided by the number of days in the cycle. To get the daily balance for cash advances, new cash advances are added to the day's beginning balance and payments and credits are subtracted. To get the daily balance for purchases, new purchases are added to the day's beginning balance and payments and credits are subtracted; however, new purchases are not added if you paid the entire New Balance on your last statement by the end of the grace period or if you did not have a balance on your last statement. Fees and unpaid finance charges are not included in the calculation of the average daily balance. Finance charges will continue to accrue on your Account until what you owe under this Agreement is paid in full.

Credit Union may offer balance transfer, introductory rate, or other special rate promotions for your Account from time to time in Credit Union's sole discretion. The applicable Monthly Periodic Rate and ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE for any promotion and any promotion terms and conditions will be disclosed to before or at the time you make use of such promotion.

5. Other Charges. The following other charges (fees) will be added to your Account, as applicable:

- a. Over-the-Credit-Limit Fee: In the event you incur charges in amounts which shall cause the Account indebtedness, and if you agree, you shall pay immediately the amount by which the total New Balance exceeds such maximum authorized credit, and an over limit fee shall be imposed.
- b. Late Payment Fee: If a payment of at least the amount of the minimum required payment is not received within five (5) days of the Due Date, a late charge shall be imposed.
- c. Return Check /Return Pre-Authorized Payments Fee:
We may charge you this fee each time any payment you make to us is not paid by your financial institution for any reason, even if that institution later pays it.
- d. Card Replacement Fee: In the event any additional or replacement cards are issued for any reason other than the issuance of a renewal card, a fee may be imposed.
- e. Collection Costs: You agree to pay all costs incurred by Credit Union in collecting your indebtedness or in enforcing this Agreement, including attorneys' fees and costs, as well as those costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in appellate, bankruptcy, and post-judgment proceedings, except to the extent such costs, fees, or expenses are prohibited by law.
- f. Balance Consolidation/Convenience Check Stop Payment Fee: We may charge you this fee if we do not pay a convenience check for any reason, including when your account is in default, overlimit, suspended or closed.

6. Payments. Each month you must pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement by the date specified on the statement or no later than twenty-five (25) days from the statement closing date, whichever is later. If your statement says the payment is "Now Due," your payment is due no later than twenty-five (25) days from the statement closing date. You may pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment or pay the Total New Balance in full. If you make extra or larger payments, you are still required to make at least the minimum payment each month your Account has a balance (other than a credit balance). The minimum payment is 2% of your Total New Balance, or $20.00, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any prior minimum payments that you have not made, and any amount you are over your credit limit. Credit Union also has the right to demand immediate payment of any amount by which you are over your credit limit. All payments are to be made by check, money order, or electronic payment drawn in US dollars and payable through a US financial institution. All payments are to be made at the location specified on your monthly billing statement. Payments received at locations other than the address specified or payments that do not conform to the requirements set forth on or with the periodic statement (e.g. missing payment stub, payment envelope other than as provided with your statement, multiple checks or multiple coupons in the same envelope) may be subject to delay in crediting. Credit Union may accept late payments, partial payments, or checks and money orders marked "payment in full" and by doing so, Credit Union will not lose any rights under this Agreement if such irregular payments are accepted.

7. Payment Allocation. Subject to applicable law, your payments may be applied to what you owe Credit Union in any manner Credit Union chooses.

8. Security Interest. AS A CONDITION OF CREDIT UNION'S OPENING YOUR ACCOUNT AND YOUR USE OF THE CARD, YOU HEREBY GRANT TO CREDIT UNION A SECURITY INTEREST IN ALL SHARES, DEPOSITS AND OTHER FUNDS ON DEPOSIT WITH CREDIT UNION IN WHICH YOU HAVE AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST (other than an IRA account or an account where this security interest would cause the loss of tax-exempt or tax-deferred status). THE SECURITY INTEREST IS FOR ALL AMOUNTS OWED TO CREDIT UNION UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. IF YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER ANY TERM OF THIS AGREEMENT, CREDIT UNION SHALL HAVE A RIGHT TO IMMEDIATELY SEIZE YOUR SHARES, DEPOSITS AND/OR OTHER FUNDS WITHOUT NOTICE OR DEMAND TO YOU AND TO APPLY SUCH FUNDS TO THE AMOUNTS OWED TO ACF. Collateral securing other loans you have with Credit Union now or in the future will also secure this loan, except that a dwelling or your household goods (as defined by the Federal Trade Commission) will not be considered as security for this Account, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement.

9. Default. You will be in default if you fail to make any minimum payment or other required payment by the date that it is due. You will be in default if you break any promise you make under this Agreement or any other agreement with Credit Union. You will be in default if you die, file for bankruptcy or become insolvent, that is, unable to pay your obligations when they become due. You will be in default if you make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or credit update. You will also be in default if something happens that Credit Union believes may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe. When you are in default, Credit Union has the right to demand immediate payment of your full Account balance without giving you notice. If immediate payment is demanded, you agree to continue paying finance charges as described in this Agreement until what you owe has been paid, and any shares, deposits and other funds on deposit with Credit Union that were given as security for your Account may be applied towards what you owe. You hereby agree that your salary or earnings may be subject to attachment or garnishment to the extent allowed under applicable law. You further waive, to the extent allowed under applicable law, any exemption you might have from attachment or garnishment of your salary or earnings.

10. Liability for Unauthorized Use-Lost/Stolen Card Notification. You agree to notify Credit Union immediately, orally or in writing at Florida Credit Union, P.O. Box 5549, Gainesville, FL 32627 or telephone (800) 449-7728 twenty four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, of the loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your Credit Card. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Credit Card. You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify Credit Union of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. You will have no liability for unauthorized purchases made with your credit card, unless you are grossly negligent in the handling of your card. In any case, your liability will not exceed $50.

Notwithstanding the above, if 10 or more Cards are issued for use by employees of a single business, there is no limit to the liability of the business for unauthorized use that occurs before you notify Credit Union of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use as provided in this Agreement. The business may only impose liability on its employees for unauthorized use of a Card as authorized by federal law and regulation.

Credit Union will not be liable to any of your or any third party for any consequential or incidental damages resulting from the unauthorized use of the Card and/or PIN.

11. Changing or Terminating Your Account. Credit Union may change the terms of this Agreement from time to time in Credit Union's sole discretion. Credit Union may reduce your credit limit, refuse to make an advance and/or terminate your Account at any time for any reason not prohibited by law. Notice of any change will be given in accordance with applicable law. If permitted by law and specified in the notice to you, the change will apply to your existing Account balance as well as to future transactions. Either you or Credit Union may terminate this Agreement at any time, but termination by you or Credit Union will not affect your obligation to pay the Account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement. You are also responsible for all transactions made to your Account after termination, unless the transactions were unauthorized. Your notice of termination will be ineffective until Credit Union receives the notice and all Cards and has a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. The Card or Cards you receive remain the property of Credit Union and you must recover and surrender to Credit Union all Cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement whether by you or Credit Union. Credit Union has the right to require you to pay your full Account balance at any time after your Account is terminated, whether it is terminated by you or Credit Union.

12. Credit Information. You authorize Credit Union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing your Account. You authorize Credit Union to disclose information regarding your Account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing. If your Account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services, and you request such services, you agree that Credit Union may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested service(s). You are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of this Agreement.

13. Returns and Adjustments. Merchants and others who honor your Card may give credit for returns or adjustments, and they will do so by sending Credit Union a credit slip which will be posted to your Account. If your credits and payments exceed what you owe Credit Union, the amount will be applied against future purchases and cash advances. If the credit balance amount is $1 or more, it will be refunded upon your written request or automatically after six (6) months.

14. Additional Benefits/Card Enhancements. Credit Union may from time to time offer additional services to your Account, such as travel accident insurance, at no additional cost to you. You understand that Credit Union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

15. Foreign Transactions. Transactions initiated in foreign countries and/or foreign currencies will be charged to your Account in U.S. Dollars. The conversion rate to dollars will be (a) a rate selected by Visa from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa itself receives, or (b) the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date, in each of the above instances, plus or minus any adjustment determined by Credit Union.

16. Merchant Disputes. Credit Union is not responsible for the refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your Card.

17. Joint and Individual Liability. Each of you is individually and jointly responsible for paying all amounts owed under this Agreement. This means that Credit Union can require any one of you individually to repay the entire amount owed under this Agreement. Each of you authorizes any of you to make purchases, balance transfers or cash advances individually.

18. Effect of Agreement. This Agreement is the contract which applies to all transactions on your Account even though the sales, cash advances, credit or other slips you sign or receive may contain different terms.

20. Severability. In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of the Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect.

21. No Waiver. Credit Union can delay enforcing any of its rights any number of times without losing them. To be effective, any waiver of any term or condition stated in this Agreement must be in writing and signed by an authorized officer of the Credit Union and shall not be considered as a waiver of any future or other obligation or right.

22. Statements and Notices. Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given Credit Union. Statements and notices sent to any one of you will be considered notice to all. Any notice from you will be ineffective until Credit Union receives and has a reasonable opportunity to act upon the notice. You must notify Credit Union in writing immediately if you change your address. You agree to examine periodic statements and to report any errors or problems to Credit Union within a reasonable time. You agree that the time to examine the statement and report to Credit Union will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 60 days from when the statement containing the error or problem was first mailed or made available to you. If you do not report within 60 days, Credit Union will be entitled to treat such information as correct and any and all of you will be precluded from asserting otherwise.

23. Binding Nature and Assignment. Credit Union can assign or transfer your Account or any portion without notice to you or your consent. You may not assign your Account or any portion thereof without Credit Union's written consent, which may be withheld in Credit Union's sole discretion. This Agreement shall be binding on each of you and your heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns

24. VISA Rules. You agree to abide by all applicable rules and regulations of the VISA USA, Inc. as well as all applicable laws. If there is any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the rules and regulations of VISA USA, Inc., the rules and regulations of VISA USA, Inc. shall control.

25. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, and the laws and regulations of the State of Florida, as amended from time to time.

26. Jurisdiction, Venue and Attorneys' Fees. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be within the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which Credit Union's principal place of doing business is located. If legal action is necessary to enforce this Agreement or collect any amounts owing to Credit Union or fees or charges assessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party has the right, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of all reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal and any post-judgment actions. You agree that such legal action shall be filed and heard in the county and state in which Credit Union's principal place of doing business is located, except as prohibited by applicable law.

27. Final Expression. This Agreement is the final expression of the terms and conditions of this VISA line of credit between you and Credit Union. This written Agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of any alleged oral agreement.

28. Copy Received. You acknowledge that you have received a copy of this Agreement.

29. Military Lending Act Disclosures: Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. The rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The cost associated with credit insurance premium; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). Please call us at (800) 284-1144 to receive oral disclosures of the Military Lending Act disclosure above and a description of the payment obligation.

Your Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Florida Credit Union
P.O. Box 5549
Gainesville, FL 32627

You may also contact us on the web: www.flcu.org

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing or electronically. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing [or electronically] at:

Florida Credit Union
P.O. Box 5549
Gainesville, FL 32627
www.flcu.org

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
